UCF's hospitality college named top 5 in the world

THINK TALENT...The Rosen College of Hospitality Management at the University of Central Florida recently ranked No.5 on CEOWORLD Magazine's 2015 list of the 50 best hospitality and hotel management schools, based on a global survey of 18,000 hospitality recruiters and senior managers of luxury hotels around the world.

THINK INNOVATION...Of the top five, Rosen College is the youngest with an enrollment of 3,500 students offering six academic degrees, including the only bachelor's degree in event management in the nation and the only doctoral program in hospitality management in the state.

THINK WORKFORCE...The world is becoming increasingly global, and students exposed to the best education will be poised to succeed in today's fast-changing workforce. Being recognized as one of the top programs worldwide will help UCF in its quest to produce the next industry leaders.

THINK FLORIDA...A Higher Degree for Business.

Think Florida: A Higher Degree for Business is a unified State University System campaign designed to build synergies between Florida's 12 public universities and the business community. The campaign's primary focuses are talent, research and partnerships.
